PROFILE

Jake Holly is an associate with Foulston's transactional and business law practice group in the firm's Topeka office. Jake advises clients in the areas of business and corporate, administrative, estate planning, and real estate law.

Prior to joining Foulston, Jake clerked at the Third Judicial District where he witnessed the resolution of litigation disputes and the procedures and policies behind Kansas Administrative Agency disputes firsthand.

Outside his law practice, Jake is an avid Chiefs, Royals, and Jayhawks fan. He can also be found playing a game of pick-up basketball at his church and local parks.
